

This document provides an overview of our current progress and the work completed to date on our WordPress project.

The Home Page: The homepage features clear navigation to, programs, volunteers, support, blog & Podcast , resources and events, with a simple, welcoming design.

The screenshot shows the OSI-CAN homepage. At the top, there's a header with the text "Thinking about suicide? Call or text 988. In crisis call? 1-877-303-2642. Looking for other supports? Call 211 (Saskatchewan only)". Below the header is the OSI-CAN logo and a "Donate Now" button. A red navigation bar contains links for Home, Programs, Resources, Events, Volunteers, Support, Blog & Podcast, and a search icon. The main content area features a large white banner with the text "Providing Free Su pport for the ones" and an illustration of a person holding a smartphone.

The Resource Page: Provides categorized resources in card format with easy access to important links and information.

The screenshot shows the OSI-CAN Resource page. It has a header with the same crisis contact information as the homepage. Below the header is the OSI-CAN logo and a "Donate Now" button. A red navigation bar contains links for Home, Programs, Resources, Events, Volunteers, Support, Blog & Podcast, and a search icon. The main content area is titled "Resources". It features a search bar with a placeholder "Type your keyword to search...", a dropdown menu, and an orange "Search" button. Below the search bar is a list of resource categories: "Abusive behavior", "Additional Resources", "Meditation, PTSD, Trauma", and "Suicidal Ideation". To the right, there are two large, empty rectangular boxes designed to hold resource cards.

The Event Page: Lists upcoming workshops and peer support meetings. Each event shows its title, date, and description. Future updates will include registration and filtering options.

At the top, a navigation bar includes links for Home, Programs, Resources, Events, Volunteers, Support, and Blog & Podcast, along with a search icon. Below the navigation, a large section header reads "Ongoing Events". Underneath are three event cards: 1) "COMEDY NIGHT" featuring two comedians, Big Daddy Tass and Shawn Cuthand, with a "CASH BAR" option. 2) "LET US HELP YOU HEALING WITH HORSES RESET EVENT" showing people interacting with horses. 3) A collage of images related to outdoor activities like karting and cycling.

The Program Page provides information about the different support programs and initiatives offered by OSi-Can Canada. It helps users learn about the available services and how to get involved or access help.

A screenshot of the OSi-Can Canada website's Programs page. The top navigation bar is identical to the Events page. Below it, a main heading says "Programs". Two prominent program cards are displayed: 1) "OSI-CAN Peer Support Groups" with a background image of a person riding a horse and a "Learn More" button. 2) "Adult Family & Friends of OSI" with a background image of a family sitting together on a couch and a "Learn More" button.
